WASHINGTON (AP) — Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor, armed with fresh orders from President Johnson, will fly back to South Viet Nam shortly to work out new plans for intensifying the war against Communist guerrillas.

Presumably, prospective new military actions could include air strikes against the Communist supply lines that run from North to South Viet Nam through the mountainous jungles of Laos.

A White House statement reporting on the conference Johnson held Tuesday with Taylor and other top policy advisers withheld details on prospective actions.

Significantly, however, the statement emphasized Red use of the supply lines through Laos and said there is evidence of increasing support to the Viet Cong rebels from Communist North Viet Nam. The statement also said that Taylor would "consult urgently" with the South Viet Nam government on what should be done to improve the war effort.

Against the background of mounting expectation of decisions on whether the war should be broadened beyond the boundaries of South Viet Nam, the White House statement summarized military, political and economic conditions in the country and said:

"The meeting reviewed the accumulating evidence of continuing and increased North Vietnamese support of the Viet Cong and of North Vietnamese forces in, and passing through, the territory of Laos in violation of the Geneva accords of 1962.

"The President instructed Ambassador Taylor to consult urgently with the South Vietnamese government as to measures that should be taken to improve the situation in all its aspects.

"The President reaffirmed the basic U.S. policy of providing all possible and useful assistance to the South Vietnamese people and government in their struggle to defeat the externally supported insurgency and aggression being conducted against them."

Atlantic Storm Batters Ships

PORTLAND, Maine (AP) — The first major snowstorm of the season along the Atlantic Coast has virtually paralyzed parts of Maine with up to two feet of snow. It battered shipping from New Jersey to Nova Scotia and endangered many lives.

The snow Tuesday skipped past most of the coast but struck northern and eastern Maine hard. Driven by winds which sometimes reached 60 miles per hour, the snow piled in drifts up to eight feet in some sections.

The storm brought biting cold on northwest winds which pushed the mercury down to 5 above in northern Maine.

Wintery weather also prevailed across the northern half of the nation from the Rockies to the western slopes of the Appalachians, with snow and cold.

Freezing weather again nipped areas deep into the Southland, with the mercury dropping to 24 in Macon, Ga., and 29 in Tallahassee, Fla., Montgomery, Ala., and Albany, Ga. The below zero belt covered northern Midwest areas with 11 below in Grand Forks, N.D., one of the lowest readings.

Former Minister Profumo Pockets Cool $1,680,000

LONDON (AP) — Former British War Minister John Profumo, 49, who resigned last year after admitting he lied to cover a liaison with call girl Christine Keeler, will be able to pocket $1,680,000 under an agreement announced today in the High Court in London.

His brother and two sisters get similar sums. In return they forfeit life interests in trusts of $11.2 million set up by their father, the late Baron Albert Profumo.

Robert G. (Bobby) Baker

Baker Called To Testify In Payoff Inquiry

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate investigators call Bobby Baker to the witness stand today to question him about an alleged $25,000 political payoff in which he has been cited as the man who gave the orders.

There was no advance indication as to whether Baker would testify. In an earlier Senate probe of his activities, he invoked the Fifth Amendment and refused to answer questions.

Don B. Reynolds, a local insurance man, opened the Senate Rules Committee's hearings Tuesday by swearing he was the "bag man" in the alleged kickback deal and Baker was the one who "gave me all my orders."

Arrangements Outlined

For some four hours Reynolds detailed the arrangements he said were made between Baker and Democratic politician Matthew H. McCloskey to funnel $25,000 from a government contract for construction of the District of Columbia Stadium into the 1960 Kennedy-Johnson campaign fund.

Baker was scheduled to be called today following William N. McLeod, former clerk of the House District Committee. McLeod was to be questioned about his role in getting congressional approval for a bill calling for construction of the stadium.

Reynolds testified that he gave McLeod $1,500 and told him, "It's time I shared with you."

Reynolds testified he added $35,000 to the fee for acting as broker through whom the McCloskey firm's performance bond in constructing the stadium was written.

"Bag Man" Paid

He said the understanding was that $25,000 of it would go to the Kennedy-Johnson campaign fund. His fee for services as the "bag man" would be $10,000.

The arrangement was suggested by McCloskey and Baker, Reynolds said, and was discussed in his presence.

McCloskey, former chairman of the finance committee of the Democratic National Committee and former ambassador to Ireland, has denied any knowledge of such a payoff or kickback.

Baker resigned his $19,600-a-year post as secretary to the Senate's Democrats more than a year ago. His activities are being investigated by a grand jury. After its initial investigation of his outside business activities while a Senate employee, the Rules Committee found Baker was "guilty of many gross improprieties."

Escapers Flee In Stolen Cars

DETROIT (AP) — Police theorize that a trail of stolen and recovered autos may mark the route two prison camp fugitives took to Chicago.

Six men fled a northern Lower Michigan prison camp Sunday and are accused of kidnapping Flint detective Eugene Christensen, 42, and his son, Neil, 14.

The father and son were released unharmed in Detroit Monday. Four of the fugitives were arrested shortly afterward.

Still missing were Samuel E. Peeler, 21, of Flint, and Willy Burke, 22, of Detroit.

Tuesday, police reported this sequence of auto thefts: A car was stolen in Oak Park, near Detroit, Sunday night and found in Chelsea Sunday night.

An auto was stolen in Chelsea Sunday night and discovered in Jackson Monday night. A car stolen in Jackson Monday morning was found in Kalamazoo that afternoon. And a car taken in Kalamazoo Monday afternoon was recovered in Benton Harbor Tuesday morning.

Detroit Inspector George Zellman said it was likely the stolen cars were used by the fugitives. Lt. Meridith Rynearson of Benton Harbor's police said he thought definitely the escapees were headed for Chicago.

Satchmo Barred In South Africa

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP) — The South African government has refused an entry visa to American trumpeter Louis (Satchmo) Armstrong.

The South Africa Press Association reported today that the government gave no reason for the refusal. Presumably the visa was withheld because Armstrong is a Negro.

Auditor Files More Data On Guard Scandal

LANSING (AP) — Auditor General Billie Farnum said Tuesday he plans to complete his report on the Michigan National Guard land, money and liquor scandal before leaving for congress.

Farnum and his investigators provided the data which led to the firing by Gov. George Romney of three top guard officers Oct. 8. Two of the officers have since been reinstated, then suspended pending a hearing this month.

Farnum's office has continued its investigation in order "to tie everything together."

The 19th district congressman-elect said he'll also make public a set of recommendations concerning operations and legal restrictions on the state auditing function.

Farnum is Michigan's last elected auditor general. Under the new constitution, the legislature will hereafter appoint an auditor.

Farnum also said that William J. Coughlin, planning editor of the Detroit Free Press, will join his congressional staff as executive aide.

Coughlin, former Sunday editor and associate editor of the Free Press, has been a Wayne State University lecturer and special instructor since 1946.

Farnum said he'll have four staff aides in Washington and two or three in two district offices, probably located in or near Pontiac and Livonia.

Rusk Discusses Soviet UN Debt With Gromyko

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk scheduled a second meeting with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko today in an effort to win Soviet agreement to help pay for peace-keeping operations of the United Nations.

A last minute accord Tuesday postponing a showdown at the General Assembly opened the way for basic financial negotiations starting at a luncheon meeting of Gromyko and Rusk at the headquarters of the Soviet U.N. mission.

U.S. sources expected other East-West issues would come up also, including disarmament, trade and a U.S.-Soviet consular agreement.

The U.N. money issue had top priority. At their first meeting Monday, Rusk and Gromyko skirmished over procedure in what was termed an inconclusive session.

U.S. diplomats contended the United States gained more than it lost in Tuesday's compromise under which the General Assembly is going ahead with routine debate. Voting on important matters was put off to allow time for the backstage financial talks.

At issue is the Soviet Union's refusal to pay her U.N. assessments for the Congo and Middle East peace-keeping operations, which she says were illegal, and application of the U.N. Charter's Article 19. Article 19 says members falling two years behind in their dues — and that now includes the U.S.S.R. — shall lose their General Assembly vote.

Union Figure, Dave Beck Goes Free On Parole

WASHINGTON (AP) — Dave Beck, onetime Teamsters Union head who has served nearly half of a five-year prison sentence for income tax fraud, will be freed on parole on Dec. 11 from the U.S. penitentiary on McNeil Island near Tacoma, Wash.

Parole was granted Beck Tuesday.

Beck, now 70, was fined $20,000 in addition to his jail sentence in Tacoma, Wash., on Feb. 27, 1959, on charges of filing fraudulent tax returns for the union's Joint Council Building Association in Seattle, Wash.

He began serving the sentence June 20, 1962, after he lost his appeals fight.

Invitations Sent To 100,000 For Jan. 1 Inaugural

LANSING (AP) — Approximately 100,000 invitations soon will be mailed for what apparently is the biggest inauguration in Michigan history.

Gov. George Romney will be the featured oath-taker at the Jan. 1 ceremonies. But the nine-member Court of Appeals and eight-member Board of Education—both new in Michigan government—will join the governor and other elected state administrators in taking office.

The expanded roll call and consequent lengthening of the festivities qualify the inaugural as the state's biggest.

Otherwise, the noon program on the state Capitol steps will follow usual tradition, said Phil Pittenger, a Romney staff coordinator for the inauguration.

The program includes a fly-over, 19-gun salute and band music from Michigan National Guard units, recitation of oaths and Romney's inaugural speech.

The program is expected to run somewhat past the usual one-hour length.

"As usual, the platform is half San Diego as it should be," Pittenger said. "We have about 40 more people to get up there than in the past."

The invitations, which include the right to purchase inauguration ball tickets, go mostly to office-holders, Republican contributors, workers and delegates, and practically anyone else who asks for one. Approximately 70,000 were sent two years ago.

No ticket is needed to stand on the Capitol lawn to witness the oaths, nor are there any seats.

"The Democrats indicated they didn't want any invitations sent to their workers," said Pittenger. Though a majority of those taking oaths are Democrats, the inaugural is traditionally the governor's show.

Republicans hope the $5 ball tickets will pay for the program, which is underwritten by the party, not the state. Invitations alone will cost $7,000 to prepare and mail, said Pittenger.

Romney also will have luncheon and conduct an afternoon receiving line in his office. The line ran until 6:30 p.m. at Romney's first inauguration.

"We're hoping the reception won't be as large," said Pittenger, mainly because the Rose Bowl football game matching Michigan against Oregon State will be on television from 4 to 7 p.m.

Journey Today Is Longest In Papal History

BOMBAY, India (AP) — Pope Paul VI arrived today on the longest mission ever undertaken by a pontiff, was welcomed by 100,000 Indians, and said "We come as a pilgrim, a pilgrim of peace, of joy and love."

There was no single incident, although police had been prepared for hostile acts from fanatical Hindu sects opposed to the papal visit to attend the 38th International Eucharistic Congress.

Wearing a white skull cap, a red silk stole and a red brocade cape at the end of the 4,000-mile journey, Pope Paul walked down a 40-foot red carpet spread from the ramp of the plane.

Greeted By Premier

Waiting to greet him were Prime Minister Lal Bahadur Shastri, a Hindu who was said at first to have opposed the Pope's visit to Hindu India; and Vice President Zakir Hussain, a Moslem.

"We rejoice in the honor of meeting you," the Pope said in his address to Shastri and Hussain.

After praising India for its efforts for world peace, the Pope added:

"We come as a pilgrim, a pilgrim of peace, of joy and love. We greet all the Indian people, every man, woman and child. And we extend our greeting to all the nations of Asia, to every nation in the world."

While there were nearly 100,000 Indians at the airport, many barefoot and wearing the dhoti or robe of their impoverished land, only about 8,000 were permitted to enter the airport. Many of these were Indian Catholics.

Crowd Over 200,000

Minutes before the plane landed, about 2,000 Indians broke through police lines and surged across the runway seeking a better view of the leader of the world's half billion Roman Catholics.

About 2,000 police, on duty at the airport, shoved the crowd back without using violence. The police used long bamboo poles.

There was a cheer from the crowd as the jetliner landed in the 87-degree heat.

After the ceremonies at the airport the Pope walked to a waiting car in the motorcade assembled to drive him 13 miles into the center of Bombay.

More than 16,000 policemen were stationed between the airport and Oval Park, the Pope's destination in downtown Bombay where the congress is being held.

Waiting in Oval Park for the Pope were an estimated 200,000 Catholics attending the congress. They had been jammed in the 80-acre park for hours under the hot sun.

In a statement distributed as he left Rome on the longest papal journey in history, the Roman Catholic pontiff asked those who sympathized with his mission to pray for its success.

With poverty-stricken Asia as his destination, he appealed to the rich countries of the world to lend economic support to relieve the poverty of underdeveloped nations.

Rain Cancels Speech

The Pope's Air India jetliner took off before dawn from Rome in a driving rain, and only a small crowd saw the pontiff off. Because of the rain, he canceled the departure speech he was to have made. Copies were distributed to newsmen instead.

In it the Pope said his trip "seeks to unite all peoples in closer bonds of mutual understanding and friendship, making them ever more conscious of the inescapable duty of knowing one another, of loving one another, of helping one another effectively according to the goods received from God in varying measure, not meant for a few nations but created for all the human family."

Party Totals 88

The Pope's plane carried 88 persons — the papal party of 29, 26 newsmen, 30 nuns, priests and laymen and a crew of 12. The Pope's party filled the first-

Indian Affairs Study Group To Tour Hannaville

Michigan's Indian Affairs Commission appointed by Governor Romney will come to Delta County Friday night and on Saturday will visit the Indian settlement at Hannaville near Bark River.

Dr. Lewis Beeson, Lansing, member of the Commission and executive secretary of the Michigan Historical Commission, said that eight of the 16-member group will be able to make the trip to Escanaba.

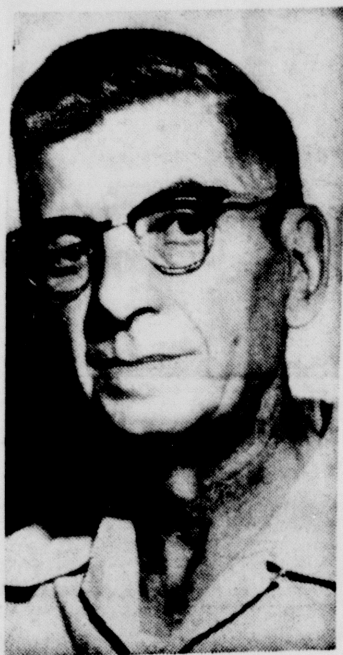

Gov. Romney appointed the Commission in May and it has already visited a number of Indian communities in the state.

"The Commission was appointed to find out the problems of the state's Indian residents, to list those problems, give them priority, and propose solutions," said Dr. Beeson.

A number of the members of the Commission are Indians. Seven of the eight members who will come to Escanaba are Indians, including Herman E. Cameron of Bay Mills, the president of the Commission.

Cameron is chairman of the Bay Mills Indian Community. Other members of the group include Mrs. Herbert Welsh of Baraga, active in the Keweenaw Bay Community; Robert Dominic, Petoskey, chairman of the Northern Michigan Ottawa Indian reservation; and William A. LaBlanc, Detroit, a native of Sault Ste. Marie, who is a Chippewa Indian.

The group will arrive Friday

night after visiting the Indian communities at Petoskey and Charlevoix. They will spend the night here and on Saturday morning will meet Mrs. Welsh of Baraga at the Bark River-Harris School for the tour of the Hannaville community, said Dr. Beeson.

"The Indian communities at Watersmeet and Hannaville are regarded as critically in need of solution to their problems of poverty that includes inadequate housing and poor sanitation," said Dr. Beeson. "They have no electric power. Many drop out of high school. Most whites appear to be indifferent."

The tour on Saturday is hoped to "highlight the situation" and hopefully to bring recommendations and solutions to some of the problems of the Hannaville people.

The Governor's study commission on Indian affairs has not been idle since it was appointed last spring. It has met at Baraga and Bay Mills last summer, and last spring at the Indian community in Isabella County near Mt. Pleasant in studies of the Indian situation.

Library Recalls Old Fashioned Christmas Joys

BY RUTH THOMAS
Menominee County Librarian

It is well to consider the Spirit of Christmas. Has the essence of Christmastide been lost in our hectic preparations for this holiday?

Children of this age are constantly attracted toward the commercial lure. What their parents longingly recall these children have not known. Many of us adults remember and cherish old-fashioned Christmases. It is by the parents that the resurrection of the Spirit of Christmas must be made. Only the grown-ups can renew the sense of sharing this holy day, the anniversary of the birth of a Child. Only they can guide the way to a spiritual Christmas.

Let us take the time to wonder about this day we celebrate, how it really happened. If you recall your reading of the history of Christmas, you will find the most astonishing and unsuspected things, such as the belief that the ox in the stable feared to breathe for fear of breathing on an angel. It was a childlike day. Stories of the way in which the Christmas tree began should be added to the memories of our children.

It is with these thoughts in mind that we have written the following book list. The list presents holiday preparations in which the whole family can participate. There are materials on Christmas traditions, stories, poetry; there are suggestions about gifts, handmade cards, wrappings decorations, recipes.

"Designs for a Family Christmas."

Braybrooke: A Partridge in a Pear Tree; a celebration for Christmas.

Dobler: Customs and Holidays Around the World.

Engle: Prairie Christmas.

Farjeon: The New Book of Days.

Foley: Christmas in the Good Old Days, a Victorian album of stories, poems, and pictures of the personalities who rediscovered Christmas.

Foley: The Christmas Tree; an Evergreen Garland filled with history, folklore, symbolism, traditions, legends and stories.

Hole: Christmas and its customs.

Keyes: Christmas Gift.

O'Shea: The First Christmas.

Seibel: The Joyful Christmas Craft Book.

Spicer: 46 Days of Christmas; a cycle of Old World songs, legends, and customs.

Cagner: Swedish Christmas.

Travers: The Fox at the Manger.

Watts: The Complete Christmas Book.

Wernecke: Christmas customs Around the World.

State Treasury Surplus Grows

LANSING (AP) — Michigan will go even deeper into the black by the end of this fiscal year, says State Controller Glenn S. Allen Jr.

The state, after climbing from an $85 million deficit on June 30, 1961, to a $57 million surplus this year, will see some increase in the surplus by next June 30, Allen said in an interview.

"We had planned to spend $2 million of the surplus this year," he said, "but there will be even more income than we anticipated... in revenues all across the board."

Allen and his staff members have met with financial experts and trend analysts from the University of Michigan, Michigan State and Wayne State Universities, and with business analysts of major Michigan corporations.

"The general feeling," he said, "is that the economy will remain strong in the coming calendar year—not as strong as in the past 12 months, but still strong."

Wong guesses on anticipated income frequently have had a happy result for state financial planners ever since the 1962-63 fiscal year, when a package of nuisance taxes went into effect.

class compartment, and part of it was partitioned off for the pontiff.

En route the plane made one stop, for an hour, at the international airport outside Beirut, the capital of Lebanon. In contrast to Rome's rain, the weather there was sunny and the temperature 66 degrees.

Lebanon's Christian president, Charles Helou, and its Moslem premier, Hussein Oweini, headed the welcoming party. Correspondents estimated about 11,000 persons were at the airport.

Pope Paul's specific purpose in making the trip is to attend the 38th International Eucharistic Congress, a gathering in Bombay of Roman Catholic churchmen and pilgrims from around the world. It is the first Eucharistic Congress ever attended by a Pope.

The trip has significance beyond that, particularly for the Church's drive toward modernization and for closer ties with non-Catholics.

By going to India, where no other Pope has ever been, Pope Paul gave his trip particular significance for Asia. "He wants to show that the Church is not just Roman but also Eastern," said one prelate.

There was apprehension at the Vatican about the trip and fears for the Pope's safety. Since he announced on Oct. 18 that he was going, Hindu extremists have denounced the trip as a "Catholic invasion" aimed at conversions.

Originally Pope Paul had planned to mingle freely with the people of Bombay, visiting the poor and distributing gifts. Because of the tension, his itinerary was restricted to limit his contacts mainly to Indian officials and Christians.

Planning For Escanaba

The new year will be the most exciting and important in Escanaba in a long time.

The Escanaba Planning Commission, merchants, the Escanaba City Council, the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce and the Urban Renewal Committee are discussing an urban renewal program for downtown Escanaba.

Escanaba has been a beneficiary of good planning to a degree that seems not to be a matter of general knowledge nor commendation. It began in Escanaba a very long time ago when the community's most far-sighted officials and citizens expressed concern about shaping the city's growth.

First formal step was taken in 1929 when a zoning ordinance was adopted to restrict undesirable growth and encourage orderly development. Nearly two decades later, in 1948, City Council created the City Planning Commission, to advise council on all matters related to the physical development of Escanaba.

The functions of such city planning commissions are detailed in the State Planning Act, which says no city council action should be taken on any matter affecting the city's master plan without being first referred to the City Planning Commission for its report. (Subjects: streets, bridges, parkways, open space, public buildings, etc.)

In 1948 when the City Planning Commission was created (Bob LeMire was mayor and Art Aronson city manager), Bob Clayton was named planning director, a new building code was studied and adopted, the zoning ordinance amended to prohibit residential construction in industrial districts. Basic data master plan maps and studies were approved by the Planning Commission. They showed that Escanaba could attract Upper Peninsula shoppers as its shopping center in a population of 75,000 within a 60-mile radius of the city.

The Planning Commission and not the City Council adopts the master plan for the City. City Council action would freeze the plan into law and the intention is to use the master plan as a plastic instrument for making city plan recommendations to the City Council.

The master plan embodies zones for residence, business and industry, school system, recreation system, transportation and other vital elements of a modern community. (The master plan showed 97 acres available for recreation when it was created in 1948 and called for a total of 225 acres in the system.)

The master plan was the first formal governmental recognition of the importance of shopping to Escanaba's economy and the great potential of the city's site for development of such services. It called for adequate street access and parking and stressed "The master plan will fall short of its objective if the city's appearance in general is neglected."

It urged improvement of city-owned land, buildings and streets as an example for private developments and has provided the most dramatic example of urban renewal in the Upper Peninsula in the redevelopment of the blighted east end of Ludington St.

In 1963 the Planning Commission, working with Escanaba merchants studied redevelopment of the downtown area and Elmer Krieger, a city planner who was a consultant on the master plan, assisted in a review of renewal plans. His report pays high compliment to T. Dale Vinette, charter member and chairman of the City Planning Commission for his leadership in city planning.

Krieger said the city is using its master plan, coordinating work between citizen groups and city department heads, enforcing the zoning ordinance, following the transportation system plan ("off-street parking in downtown Escanaba is plentiful, but facilities might be better integrated") etc.

He recommended that Council set up a Capital Improvement Committee and that the planning function be strengthened by applying for Federal 701 (Planning Aid) Program funds, by hiring a planner or hiring a planning consultant.

Escanaba's position in planning is one of a community that was in planning early and which has used it very successfully. The city has had the good sense and good luck to elect councilmen who can see its benefits for the public and who support it consistently. And it takes support, because the people in charge of community development are always under pressures to compromise the public interest to private interest—"Get out of the real estate business," etc.

A month seldom passes without a proposal or change in city zoning and this is a lively and fluid situation, as it should be. Escanaba recently saw the rich rewards for good city planning when Governor George Romney brought a check for $250,000 to buy the State Office Building from the City. The building is a monument to excellent planning. Its sale anchors State Government activities of great importance here and makes available funds for further developments. If the "city got out of the real estate business" in that one it would have been immensely poorer today.

Mayor George Rush, Councilmen Jacob A. Bink, Harold Vanlerberghe, Glen Moreau and H. George Nelson are all friends of planning. They are working with a City Planning Commission and city officials who are very able in this field. The setup is ideal and promising, but it has a serious deficiency in lack of planning staff.

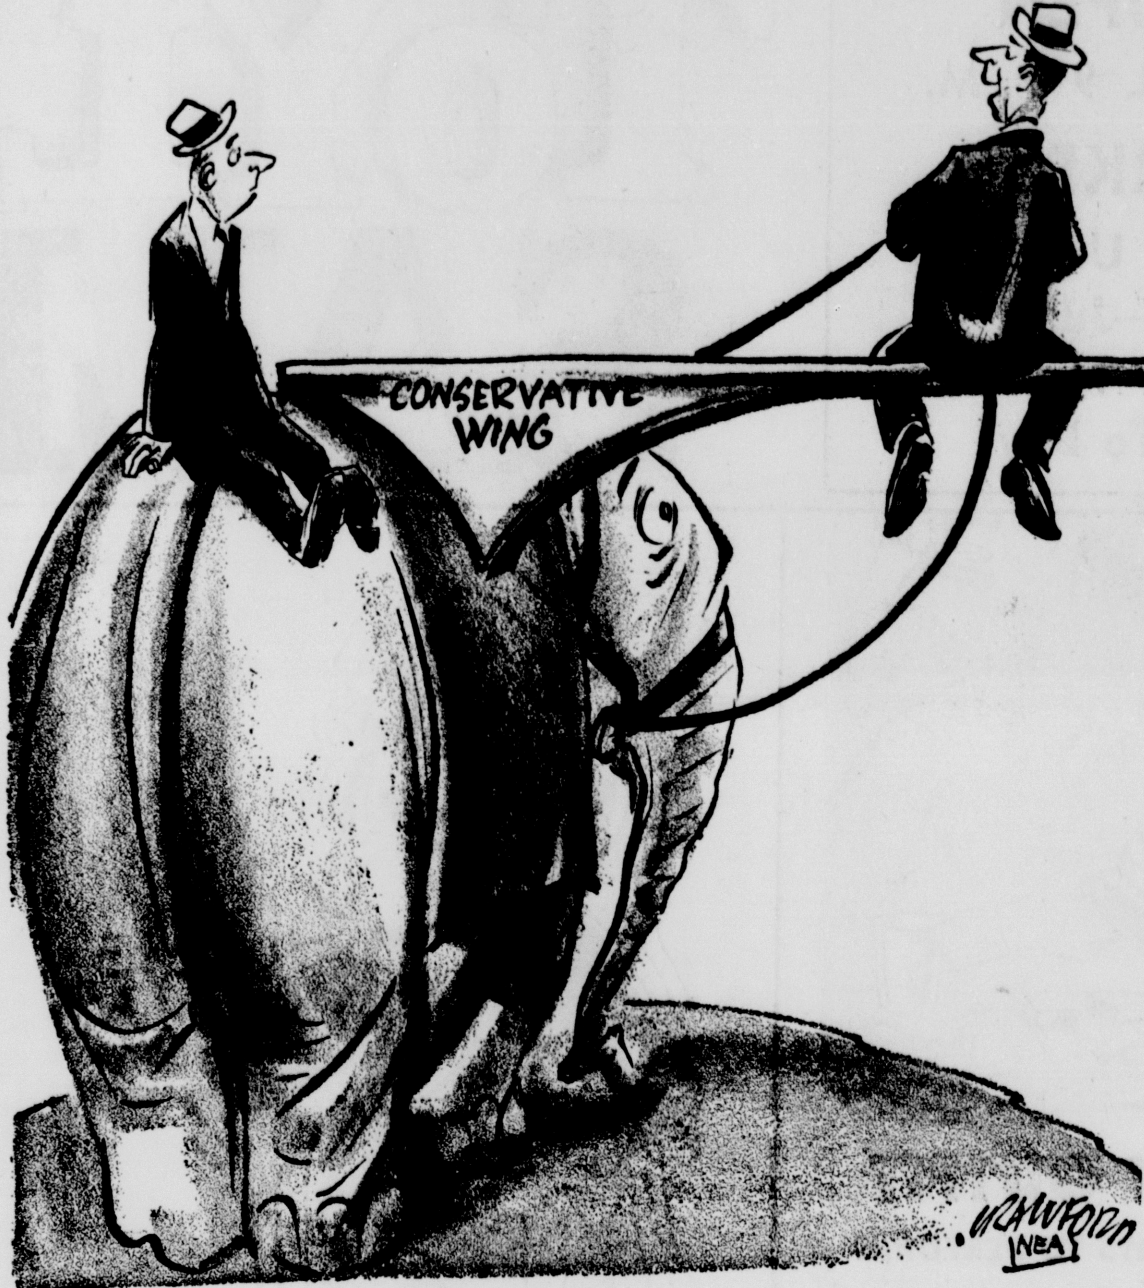

Planning is being staffed by persons from other departments and they are busy with their own work and planning requires lots of leg work, especially the kind of planning (urban renewal, zoning changes, etc.) that Escanaba should be starting actively in the new year.

City Manager George Harvey proposes to remedy this with an appropriation in the next city budget for a City Planning Department. It would be a modest start on this important action and it would have to take pot luck with other proposed appropriations for city spending, but it has the good luck to face a council which understands the problem. The public should encourage it actively for the great benefits it can bring.

The downtown renewal program will get an airing when the Planning Commission meets with Council and merchants after the Council meeting Thursday night. Ross Lowes of the Michigan Department of Economic Expansion will represent the State.

1965 shapes as a banner year for Escanaba opportunity.

"I Can Steer Just as Well from Over Here!"

Washington Comment

By BRUCE BLOSSAT
WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Specialists in federal-state relations argue that any U. S. tax monies fed back to the states can be handled without major misuse.

President Johnson will suggest such a turnback early in 1965. The hope, of course, is that much of these funds will be employed in filling huge educational needs. The plan would bypass the roadblocks that long have impeded general federal aid to education proposals.

One expert in the federal-state field says the pressures for action in education are just as great at the state level as in Washington and will keep state officials from unwisely diverting returned tax sums to lower priority matters.

He believes, too, that waste and other laxity in the allocation of federal "feed-back funds" would not produce the serious problems that have arisen with the specific grant of U. S. interstate highway monies to the states.

For any who may be concerned, another point is made. Even had Congress surmounted the obstacles and voted federal aid to the schools, the lawmakers' ingrained fear of anything that smacks of control of education would surely have produced legislation free of important federal strings.

This being the likely alternative prospect, there is clearly no sense in moaning over the dangers of lump sum return of federal revenues to the states.

Federal-state experts are, in fact, overjoyed at the new outlook. They think immense advantages of flexibility in the use of these funds will go with any reasonable plan the President proposes.

These people do not contend, however, that all virtue resides with the states when it comes to using money for state and local purposes.

They are the first to agree with federal programmers that strings tied to U. S. funds have often been highly beneficial both to the taxpayer and the recipient of federal aid.

In the broad field of public assistance, a favorite target of those who consistently assail federal aid, specialists here say that state-local personnel standards have been substantially elevated to the "merit system"

Marijuana Grown In Roof Garden

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Narcotics agents said they watched while Phillip Weinshenker, 20, cultivated his roof garden. Then they confiscated his marijuana farm and placed him under arrest.

Weinshenker pleaded guilty to setting out 395 marijuana plants in baskets on the roof of his utility room. He was fined $1,000 and placed on three years' probation in Criminal Court Monday.

Deaf Mute Sues For Finger Loss

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—A deaf mute, Joseph Kollar, 60, has brought suit for $150,000, claiming he can no longer use sign language as the result of having lost four fingers in an industrial accident.

The suit was filed against two companies connected with manufacture of a machine that broke while Kollar was using it.

San Francisco Hurt By Strike

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Downtown merchants are feeling the pinch of a labor dispute that has kept two-thirds of San Francisco's movie houses closed for nearly three weeks.

Hard hit by the theater shutdown are restaurants and bookstores, cigar stands and taverns.

Merchants who depend on movie-goers for a healthy portion of their nocturnal trade report business dropoffs of up to 50 per cent.

The economic effects of the dispute can be seen most clearly on Market Street, the city's garish main drag where hot-dog stands and small shops nestle in the shadows of darkened theater marquees.

The throngs of people usually present on the street until the early hours have thinned visibly since the shutdown took effect Nov. 14.

Clarence F. Delano, executive vice president of the Golden Gate Restaurant Association, which numbers most of the small Market Street restaurants among its members, estimates the strike has caused a 50 per cent dropoff in business.

"Our people are hurting, there's no doubt about it. When people don't come downtown to see the shows they just don't eat out."

State Briefs

The Doctor Says: Precautions Curb Monoxide

By Dr. Wayne G. Brandstadt
Silent killer and invisible murderer are names applied to carbon monoxide. In spite of repeated warnings of the dangers of running the motor of an automobile in a closed garage this practice still accounts for many deaths during cold weather.

Sitting in a parked car with the window closed and the motor running can also cause death. This danger is increased if the person in the auto is smoking.

Another hazard that is not generally appreciated is driving with the heater on in heavy traffic. The heater fan may draw exhaust fumes from the car ahead into your car especially when you have stopped for a red light. Even in cold weather, you should keep your car window open a little bit.

If you must sit in a parked car with the windows closed, shut off the motor. And remember, your exhaust pipe can become blocked by being backed into a snowbank. This will send your own exhaust fumes into your car. Often when a road accident is blamed on the driver's having fallen asleep, the real cause is carbon monoxide poisoning.

This kind of poisoning can also occur in your home, especially if you use storm windows to make your home airtight. Carbon monoxide may get into the rooms if a gas or oil furnace is not properly vented. All hot water heaters and space-heating stoves should be connected to a flue leading to the outside.

Carbon monoxide is colorless and odorless and is absorbed by your red blood cells 250 times as readily as oxygen. When the carbon monoxide replaces the oxygen in these cells, the tissues, especially the highly susceptible brain cells, become asphyxiated.

Carbon monoxide causes headache, confusion, light-headedness, blurred vision and nausea but often by the time the victim realizes that something is wrong he is too far gone to help himself.

If a person is found unconscious and carbon monoxide poisoning is suspected, he should be brought into the fresh air and artificial respiration applied. Someone should call the police or fire department for oxygen and resuscitation apparatus. This is, however, another case where prevention is infinitely better than any attempt at cure.

Q — I recently heard this statement made to a large group by a highly educated man: "Every physician knows that not one drop of a mother's blood flows through the veins of her child. She only furnishes the nourishment but the blood in its veins is the father's." Is this true?

Ann Landers Slowpokes Are Extremely Rude

Dear Ann Landers: It appears to be the style, in at least some circles, to be consistently late to parties, sports events, church — everything.

In most instances it does not seem to matter an iota. Theater curtains are held, sermons delayed, the soup is kept warm until the slowpokes arrive on the scene thus penalizing the considerate and the punctual.

Am I wrong to feel it is rude and egotistical to be late unless there is an extremely good reason? Kindly comment on this. Also, if you have a "cure" for the snails I'd like to hear it.—J. C. F.

Dear J. C. F.: It is egotistical and rude to arrive late unless an emergency caused the delay. The thoroughly disorganized and thoughtless (and neurotic) are beyond hope.

But most folks WILL get there on time if courageous people refuse to cater to the tardy at the expense of the punctual.

Dear Ann Landers: I am a girl who is in the ninth grade. Our physical education teacher is very hard to get along with. I used to think it was my fault but I've tried awful hard to do everything just right and things are not better. I'm beginning to think it's partly her fault.

We girls are supposed to run around the football field about four times. Then we are expected to take a shower, be out in three minutes, and line up in the nude so she can check us off.

Some of the girls do not like standing around in the nude and I am one of them. It is especially embarrassing to the freshmen. We have talked to girls who go to other schools and they don't have to do this.

We don't know if we have the right to complain or who to complain to. Will you guide us, please?—EMBARRASSED

Dear Embarrassed: I see no good reason why you girls can't line up and get checked out in your underwear. Those of you who are uncomfortable about the arrangement (and I don't blame you) should ask your mothers to get together and talk to the gym teacher—or the principal.

Dear Ann Landers: After 14 years of marriage, three children, two homes and six cars my husband got the idea I didn't know how to handle money and decided to take over "and show me how it's done." It is now six months later and here is where we stand: Gas and electric bills: two months overdue.

Grocery bill: no more credit—cash only.

Car payment: thirty days late. Pay within 15 days or it's the bus for us.

Life insurance: pay the last three premiums or we lose the policy.

Charity pledge: unpaid.

All this seemed to hit us at once. When I asked what happened he accused me of taking money out of his wallet during the night. He knew better, of course.

Now that things are all fouled up he wants me to handle the family budget again. Shall I? Or would it be best to let him sweat it out?—LOOKING BETTER ALL THE TIME

Dear Looking Better: For heaven's sake, Lady, this isn't HIS problem, it's yours, too.

Get back in there and get things squared away. Your husband should not be ashamed that you do a better job of handling money than he does. Most wives do. And I don't want to hear any beefs on this from my male readers. It's the beautiful truth, Boys.

Do you lean on cigarettes as a social crutch? You may regret it later. Send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "Teen-Age Smoking," enclosing with your request 10c in coin and a long, self-addressed and stamped envelope.

Name Architect For New Church

Central Methodist Church building committee today announced that it has retained G. Arntzen Architects of Escanaba to design and supervise construction of a new church edifice to be built adjacent to the parsonage at 226 S. 23rd St.

The Rev. Robert L. Selberg said that considerable study of the church's needs and discussion of plans will follow before the project plans are offered the National and District boards and the congregation for approval.

Donald J. Guindon, chairman of the Central Methodist Church architectural committee, said "we hope to break ground for construction starting next spring."

The building committee is headed by Jack Williams, who said that his committee would begin meeting soon with the architects. The needs of the people of the church will be studied and the architects will translate those requirements into use and design planning.

"We should be prepared to ask for bids in March or April if the project plans receive the necessary approval of all the boards," said Williams.

The building committee interviewed nine architects before deciding on Arntzen of Escanaba. The committee was impressed with the planning by the Arntzens for Immanuel Lutheran's new church here, and for new Methodist Churches to be built at Marquette and Ishpeming.

Burton Butler is chairman of finances for the Central Methodist Church building project; the Rev. Karl J. Hammar, pastor emeritus, is chairman of the special gifts; Mrs. Francis Bohm is chairman of choir committee, and Mrs. Robert Krohmer is chairman of the sanctuary committee.

Heading other committees are: Mrs. Bert Bertolaet, fellowship hall and kitchen facilities; Mrs. Glen Moreau, church school; Mrs. Wilmore K. Berglund, church furnishings; F. Wayne Cooper, recreation; Ed Dahl, radio and TV; Mel Carlson, volunteer labor; Mrs. Anna Harrod, historian; Lloyd Carlson, landscape; Roy Ness, construction; Tom Bentliff, publicity.

Legion Plans Yule Baskets

The American Legion is again sponsoring a project to provide Christmas baskets to the distressed and needy veterans and their dependants in the community. It was announced today by Reynold Gustafson, commander of Cloverland Post No. 82, Escanaba.

"This has been a community service program of the Legion locally for about 38 years and is aimed primarily at needy children so they might have a Christmas and enjoy some of goodies that go with the holiday season," he said.

C. Elmer Olson has been appointed by Commander Gustafson as chairman of the Christmas basket committee. Olson will name his committee to carry out work assignments.

This will be completed within a few days.

This remembrance of those a little less fortunate at Christmas time is described by Commander Gustafson as typifying the Christmas spirit, when holiday baskets carry a message of cheer and spread happiness.

Property Taxes Truly American

American colonists revolted against the imposition of unjust taxes by the British king—but Americans have a history of more than 200 years of paying property taxes to finance their own citizens' government.

Property tax, the direct tax most familiar to our people at the local level of government, was discussed by Frank Bourke, Escanaba city controller, at a meeting of the Rotary Club at the House of Ludington Tuesday noon.

Bourke was introduced by George Harvey of the Rotary Club's program committee and the meeting was conducted by Vice President Paul Snyder.

Property tax is the only tax directly imposed and disbursed, Bourke said. It is a tax that we impose upon ourselves. There would be less reluctance in the payment of property taxes if the people better understood them.

Problems Are 'Ours'

Ours is a citizens' government—whether city, county or school—and the only way it can be operated is with money. There is no quick and easy solution in how to get the money necessary to finance government, Bourke pointed out.

City Councils, Boards of Supervisors and School Boards are often criticized in their efforts to operate local government effectively.

"It is not fair of us to say that 'they' have a problem or that the problems are 'theirs,'" Bourke said. "These people are our elected representatives. The problems are ours and they are trying to solve them for us."

Bourke said that he thought the community "image" of the School Board is "unfair" and that while there may be disagreement on the amount of tax needed it cannot be denied that taxes are necessary to operate schools.

Taxes And Services

People ask for and receive services from government which they would be most reluctant to give up, Bourke said. For example, in Escanaba 20 years ago there was no municipal garbage collection in the winter months. Now it is accepted as desirable and necessary.

Everyone who owns taxable property pays taxes although they may not use all of the services and facilities such as tax revenue supplies, he pointed out.

Escanaba taxpayers help pay for some county functions which are primarily of service to the people in the townships; and in the city not everyone avails himself of the use of Ludington Park, for example. Yet because some people do not have children in school they object to the payment of school taxes, Bourke said. "It seems to me this places an unfair label on the schools," he added.

Bourke outlined the processes of assessing property for taxes, the establishment of tax rates under the law, and said that county and school taxes are paid in "winter" and the city taxes are the so-called "summer" taxes. The city serves as a collection agent for county-school taxes but retains none of them.

TRAVEL LIGHT

To prevent travel from becoming burdensome, here are the things you should leave at home: wide-brimmed hats, long-handled umbrellas, breakable bottles, bulky robes and heavy books. And if you're an active sports enthusiast, don't drag along your equipment. Rent it when you get where you're going.

Use some of the fat when you chop left over cooked corned beef for hash. Give the hash plenty of time in the frying pan to develop that welcome bottom crust.

Long Trip For One Folk Song

Susie Juetten, a Class of 1964 honor student at Holy Name High School, is a coed at St. Norbert College, West DePere, Wis.

On Saturday, Nov. 21 she journeyed down to Milwaukee to join her friend Ann Worth of Escanaba at a performance by Bobby Dylan, 23, in the Oriental Theater.

The gals dote on folk singers and Susie is one herself, after a fashion, because besides being a fan she's a guitar strummer and singer.

They had seats in the second row and settled down for an evening of enjoyment. Dylan is from Hibbing, Minn., and he is a nationally known member of the social conscience school of folk singing. Susie explains that there are several schools in this business.

There's the commercial school represented by groups like the Kingston Trio, and there are the purists, who bring their music right from the hills and give it a barefoot stomp and authenticity. They're more apt to be concerned with the Civil War than Barry Goldwater. Susie rates Dylan "semi-purist." She said "He sings in the style of the purists."

He hasn't a good voice, but sings "like he's got a corn husk in his throat." Dylan plays a guitar and also a harmonica, hung on a jaw fracture frame used by such multiple musicians and one-man bands. He writes his own songs, has several hit albums, is the composer of "Blowin' in the Wind" that Peter, Paul & Mary feature.

There was a 45-minute wait for the performance at the Oriental because the sound equipment hadn't been delivered. Then Dylan sang one song, "The Times They Are A-Changin'" and he quit. He said that the amplifying system was inadequate and invited all 1,400 members of the audience up on the stage with him.

Make two guesses about who two of his closest listeners were. "Then he started to sing 'The Talking John Birch Paranoid Blues,'" said Susie and the sound system broke down entirely and he quit.

There was another wait while Dylan and his manager and the theater management argued and then it was announced that the money would be refunded. "It was horribly disappointing, but I could see his point. He couldn't be heard," said Susie. She went back to DePere to resume her exams, hoping that the $4.50 refund arrives before Christmas.

The incident seems perfect as a folk song theme: "Meet Me In Milwaukee, Bobby, But Bring Your Own Squawk Box."

Ex-Gladstone Man Elected Ingham's Judge Of Probate

James T. Kallman was elected to a six-year term as judge of probate for Ingham County Nov. 3, after having been appointed acting judge by Governor Romney on Feb. 26, 1963.

He is a former resident of Gladstone and attended Gladstone High School from 1943-45. His father was the pastor of the First Baptist Church in that period.

While attending Gladstone High School, Judge Kallman was active in sports as a member of both the football and track teams, as

J. T. Kallman well as being the editor of the school annual and the school paper.

A native of the Bronx, N. Y., Kallman attended schools in eastern cities before moving to Gladstone, where he completed his prep course, and went to Michigan Tech in 1945. After Army service he attended the University of Michigan and received his AB degree from Wayne State University Law School in 1957.

Judge Kallman served in World War II and the Korean conflict both as an enlisted man and an officer. In the Korean war, he was a military intelligence officer assigned to the Armed Forces Security Agency in Washington, D. C.

His six-year term as probate judge expires Dec. 31, 1970.

Snow Covered Roads Cause 3 Traffic Mishaps

The first snowfall of consequence contributed to the cause of three traffic accidents investigated by State Police of the Gladstone Post Tuesday. There were no injuries, troopers said.

William Shea, 1508 N. 18th St., Escanaba, spun around and struck a tree with the rear of his car after losing control on U. S. 2 and 41, 1.3 miles north of the Escanaba River bridge, police said.

Shea told officers that as he started to pass another vehicle it pulled into his lane and he lost control when he applied his brakes. He was ticketed for having no operator's license, police said.

James Porath, Rte. 1, Gladstone, was ticketed for violation of the basic speed law, too fast for conditions, after he lost control on ice and skidded into a parked car owned by Irene Beauchamp, Rte. 1, Gladstone. Police said the accident happened on Co. Rd. 416, just north of Co. Rd. 525 in Escanaba Township.

A young mother and three children escaped injury when the car she was driving slid off the Delta-Menominee County Line Rd., two miles south of U. S. 2 and 41, police reported.

Dianna LaBonte of Spalding told police she lost control of her car when she attempted to pull one of the children back onto the seat of the car. She was ticketed for violation of the basic speed law, police said.

Bears Land Gale Sayers; Kansas City Gets DeLong

By The Associated Press Money talks — and makes college coaches scream.

It spoke to Kansas halfback Gale Sayers and Tennessee guard Steve DeLong, giving the Chicago Bears of the National Football League a split Tuesday with the rival American League as the multi-million-dollar pro football war continued.

Sayers and DeLong — both picked on the first round of the NFL draft by the Bears — went different ways. Chicago won the battle for Sayers against the Kansas City Chiefs but lost DeLong to the AFL's San Diego Chargers in the first major breakthrough for the younger league.

Meanwhile, both leagues came under fire from college coaches for signing futures — players who still have a year of college eligibility remaining but whose college class has graduated and thus are eligible to be drafted.

The two cases involved Los Angeles State tackle Walt Johnson, signed by the NFL's Cleveland Browns, and Arizona State halfback Larry Todd, signed by the Oakland Raiders of the AFL. Coaches from each team said they were considering official protests.

"They don't have any business signing a boy when he has a year to play," said Los Angeles State Coach Homer Beaty. "They waved so much money in the boy's face he couldn't turn it down. They have no regard for the boy or his coach."

Browns President Art Modell said "it's ridiculous" to the charge of waving money at Johnson and said Cleveland "found out he had no intention of going back to school. The Browns never have and never will take people out of school to play football."

Todd's coach, Frank Kush, charged the Raiders talked to the player throughout the season and implied this was unethical since the coaching staff was not contacted.

The American League, meanwhile, signed its first No. 1 pick in direct competition with the NFL when DeLong agreed to a San Diego contract. DeLong said he was "very honored to be considered by both clubs. The offers were about the same but I decided to go with San Diego."

The split kept the NFL out front of the AFL in signing first-round draft choices. NFL clubs have signed five No. 1 selections and lost only DeLong. The AFL, meanwhile, has signed three of its top picks and also lost three to the National League.

Wolverines Win Court Opener; Northern Bows

By The Associated Press

With exception of powerful Michigan, every one of the state's collegiate basketball teams that played outside teams sang the blues today. They lost Tuesday night.

Michigan, No. 1 ranked team in the nation when it closed the '64 season, tuned up for a Big Ten championship drive by defeating Ball State 92-70.

But Detroit's Titans lost to Purdue, 84-81, and Western Michigan fell to Northwestern, 95-81.

Defending NIT champion Bradley overpowered Northern Michigan 97-81, Indiana Tech edged Olivet 89-81 and St. Norbert, Wis., ran over Michigan Tech 90-68. Manchester, Ind., defeated Kalamazoo 107-85. Kent State pounded Wayne State 119-80 and Oberlin, Ohio, nosed past Adrian 76-73.

In Michigan-only contests, Albion beat Eastern Michigan 95-82 and Hillsdale edged Central Michigan 73-72.

Veteran guard Cazzie Russell scored 33 points in the Michigan victory over Ball State at Ann Arbor. Three ball state players fouled out, opening the way for Russell and senior center Bill Buntin who scored 15 points.

Purdue's Dave Shellhase made 15 of his 33 points in the last half as the Boilermakers overcame a 49-46 halftime deficit to edge Detroit. The Titans lost at the foul line, having outscored Purdue for the floor.

It took more than nine minutes of the first half before Northwestern took, and held, a lead against WMU after the advantage changed hands seven times. The Wildcats pitched a balanced scoring attack against a strong Broncos effort in which Dave Anderson topped all scorers with 22 points.

Bradley trailed 53-52 at the half, took a 71-69 lead with 14:21 to go and adopted a tight zone defense against Northern Michigan. Ernie Thompson, high scorer with 26 points, helped run up the tally. Gene Summers led NMU with 24 points.

After a 44-44 halftime tie, Albion forward Larry Downs sparked his team to victory over Eastern Michigan. Downs led all scorers with 26 points.

Olivet lost to Indiana Tech after holding a brief 49-48 second half lead. The Hoosier school took charge on Jim Brown's shooting. Brown scored 29 points.

The Chippewas, defending ILAC champions, rallied unsuccessfully right up to the end of the game after the Dales jumped to a 7-0 lead. CMU's Bob Bruder led both teams with 19 points. John Rowan scored 18 for Hillsdale.

Sandy Johnson of Michigan Tech led all scorers with 19 points, but St. Norbert won with six players in double figures.

Dick Berlinski, Kingsford halfback, was named to the all-class honor squad. . . . Making the honorable mention lists were Jim Clairmont of Escanaba and Jerry Pertunen of Marquette in Class A, Bob Gendzwil of Iron River, Paul Santoni of Kingsford and Tom Sericati of Iron Mountain in Class B, Ron Calcatera of Norway, Ron Shouquist of Stambaugh, John Kelly of Houghton, Adrian Jentroff of L'Anse and Berry Pierson of St. Ignace in Class C-D.

FRESHMAN — Once in a while a freshman will make a variety basketball squad at one of the larger schools in the Upper Peninsula, but it doesn't happen very often. . . . Such is the situation at Iron Mountain this season, however, as Brian Oulmette drew a starting assignment for Coach Irwin Demersee's team in the season opener against Negaunee. . . . The 6-footer scored three field goals in a losing cause as the Mountaineers bowed, 94-79, to the hot-shooting Miners who were paced by Pete Peterson with 34 points. . . . Peterson is the tallest player on Coach Pappy Ellis' team at 6 feet 3 inches.

BOXING — A leading figure in Upper Peninsula Golden Gloves boxing circles will be missing from the scene this year. . . . Capt. John Granger, organizer of the Sawyer Air Base team that fared so well here last year, has been transferred from the base. . . . Granger was a former outstanding boxer at Syracuse University and has been associated with the sport as a competitor, coach, referee and AAU official for many years.

HOCKEY — The Marquette Iron Rangers turned in a stunning 17-0 exhibition victory over a visiting Detroit sextet at Marquette last weekend. . . . The one-sided contest served as a tuneup for Coach Oakie Brumm's charges who will return to the United States Hockey League wars Saturday night in a game at Green Bay.

HORNETS — Soo Tech's Hornets won their second basketball tournament of the young college season by edging Northwood Institute 98-96 in the finals of the Soo Kiwanis Invitational tourney. . . . Nahma's Pat Groleau scored 11 points in the championship game and contributed 10 in the semifinal 95-66 decision over Northwestern of Traverse City. . . . Coach Jack Brighten's Hornets have won seven straight games thus far this season and Groleau, a 6 foot 5 inch freshman, has scored 105 points.

SCORER — Frank Trotter, Holy Name's versatile senior athlete, has taken over the No. 3 spot in the school's all-time basketball scoring list. . . . With his 45 in two starts this season, the 5 foot 11 inch deadeye bolstered his career total to 634 points, close to the 750 tallied by Con Yagodzinski before he graduated three years ago. . . . The greatest scorer in Crusader history was John Berrigan, who started at St. Joe and finished at Holy Name, with 1,134 points.

HUSKIES — Two former Escanaba Eskimos are among the tallest basketball players on the Michigan Tech basketball squad this season. . . . Veteran John Olson is 6 feet 5 inches and freshman Ken Seibert stands 6-7. . . . Both figured to see action as Coach Verdie Cox unveiled his 1964-65 squad last night in a road game against St. Norbert College at DePere.

SPARTANS — Jack Schindler of Iron River was the lone Upper Peninsula athlete to receive a varsity football letter at Michigan State this fall. . . . Other former U. P. athletes on the squad were Mike Dissinger of Manistique and Tom Brawley of Sault Ste. Marie.

PRESSBOX — Barry Andrews, former outstanding Escanaba High School athlete, has a choice seat for all University of Michigan home basketball games. . . . Andrews, who made the Wolverine cage squad as a sophomore but dropped the sport to concentrate on his studies, will receive his BA degree this month. . . . At the U-M home games, Andrews serves in the pressbox as play-by-play scorer, providing the information to newspaper and radio men covering the games.

P-S Tigers Win Third In Row Over Pembine

POWERS-SPALDING — After two non-conference tuneup triumphs, Coach Tom Lequia's Powers-Spalding Tigers stepped into Little Seven Conference warfare here Tuesday night and snatched a come-from-behind victory over Pembine, 62-58.

The Tigers fell behind, 18-14, in the first period and trailed through the game until the final six minutes of action. A field goal by Dave Smith put them ahead for the first time, 51-50.

Mark Reidy popped in a pair of layups and Smith added a jumper to pull the Tigers away, 57-51, and the Panthers were never able to catch up, although they were within two points in the closing seconds. A final free throw by Bill Hawrylow and another field goal by Reidy clinched it for the Tigers.

Outscored by two field goals, 26 to 24, the Tigers won from the foul line where they converted 14 of 25 chances. Pembine made good on 6 of 11 charity attempts.

Four of the Tigers reached double scoring figures, led by Hawrylow with 16 points while Burry Venstra of Pembine took individual honors with 19.

Child Dragged 50 Ft. By Car

A 10-year-old Escanaba girl, Caroline Casey of 220 S. 16th St., escaped injury and possibly death today when she was dragged for about 50 feet beneath an automobile that was involved in a collision and went out of control.

Escanaba police, who termed the child's escape "almost a miracle," said the accident occurred at 2nd Ave. S. and 16th St. at 7:56 a. m.

The accident occurred this way, police said: Cars driven by Albert "Junior" Derouin, 34, of 402 S. 15th St., and Mrs. Peter Hirm, 43, of Mounted Route, Escanaba, collided at the intersection.

Caroline was just leaving her home for school and was on the sidewalk in front of her home. The Hirm automobile, out of control, careened across the street toward Caroline.

As the front of the car struck her she fell, looping one arm over the bumper. Her lower body slid beneath the car between the front wheels.

She held on as the car went across the Casey yard, dragging her over the lawn toward the foundation of the house. The automobile stopped with Caroline's head just inches from the concrete wall.

Frightened but uninjured, Caroline was in school shortly after the accident. She is in the fifth grade at St. Patrick's School.

Youth Leader Hurt In Crash

NEWBERRY — Emil Fimbinger, 40, of Marquette, District Youth Agent for the Cooperative Extension Service, and members of his family are receiving treatment in Tahquamenon General Hospital for injuries received in an auto accident Sunday.

State Police of the Newberry Post reported that Fimbinger was traveling west on highway M-28 when a car driven by Max Radtke, 70, of Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., went out of control and skidded into the west-bound lane.

Both Radtke and his wife, Edith, 68, were fatally injured. Fimbinger has a crushed chest and internal injuries. His wife, Peggy, 39, has extensive facial lacerations. Son Russell, 12, has bruises and Kenneth, 9, has facial lacerations and a severe tongue cut.

Mrs. Marie Fimbinger, 74, mother of Emil, suffered internal injuries and multiple cuts and lacerations.

The accident happened at 5:35 p. m. Sunday, 3.3 miles west of McMillan. Shortly afterwards, another car, driven by John Yount, 19, of Romeo, Mich., hit the Fimbinger car in the rear and injured two persons who were standing by to give assistance.

They are Russell C. Mark, 56, who has a fractured left leg and Clyde Steele, 25, of Sault Ste. Marie, who has a bruised leg.

The accident was investigated by Sgt. Charles Turner of Marquette who had just reported for his first day of duty Sunday at the Newberry Post.

Neiman Named Delta Chairman By Republicans

Attorney Arthur A. Neiman has been elected chairman of the Delta County Republican Committee to succeed John Walbridge, who continues as a member of committee.

Walbridge's tenure was featured by return of Delta County to the Republican column in the governor race after decades of rule by the Democrats, who keep all the county offices and who were opposed only for the treasurer's office in the 1964 election.

Neiman has been active in Republican politics for years. He was prosecutor of Alger County and chairman of the Alger County Republican Committee during his residence and practice at Munising, and has been a member of the Delta Republican Committee since moving to Escanaba to form a law partnership with Atty. Robert Hansley in Hansley & Neiman. They have offices in the First National Bank Building.

Neiman was chairman of the 1961 Michigan Republican state convention in Detroit.

Walbridge, president of the Early American Fence Co. of Escanaba, announced after the Gladstone meeting Tuesday which elected the new committee, that he would remain on the county executive committee and continue active in Delta County politics and as a member of the 11th Congressional District Republican Committee.

Alcott Erickson of Gladstone was elected treasurer and Mrs. Carl Olson of Gladstone, vice chairman. Miss Mary Woodard was elected secretary to succeed Mrs. John O'Brien.

"I have worked to broaden the base of the committee," said Walbridge "and I believe that changes in leadership are good for the committee. I must also pay attention to my family and to my business. We will have good continuity as all the members of the executive committee except Mrs. O'Brien are remaining and we have a good precinct organization in Gladstone and Escanaba and in most of the townships of the county."

"In 1962 Delta had the highest percentage of Republican vote gain of any county in Michigan and in the November election Governor Romney carried the county by 743 votes. In 1962 he carried Escanaba but lost in the county."

Walbridge has been Republican chairman since 1962.

Augmenting the county committee elected at the county convention of the party is a steering committee of party workers which includes: John O'Brien, Mrs. John O'Brien, Erling Arntzen, Robert Hansley, Arthur Neiman, Mrs. Ann Turner, Miss Woodard, Mrs. Kermit Bender, Tom Aas, Mrs. Carl Olson, John Walbridge, Mrs. John Walbridge, Alcott Erickson, William Westlund, Forrest Hensley, Mrs. Russell Lee, Jeff Jurmu and Paul Blewett.

Death Takes Peter Ethier

Peter N. Ethier, 65, of 308 S. 10th St., widely known Escanaba sportsman, died at 6:30 a. m. today at Bellin Memorial Hospital, Green Bay. He had been in poor health three years and was seriously ill one week.

Mr. Ethier was born Oct. 6, 1899, in Escanaba, and was a life-long resident of the community. He was a veteran of World War II. He was a conductor on the Chicago & North Western Railway and a member of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, the Disabled Veterans and of St. Anne's Catholic Church.

Surviving are two sisters, Mrs. Al Wilcox, Milwaukee, and Mrs. Mary Blair, Escanaba; and one brother, Eugene, Escanaba.

The body will be taken to the Allo Funeral Home where arrangements will be completed later today.
